PART IV – STUDENT SHORT ANSWER QUESTION

Applicant answers the following questions in English

1. BPHSF students must meet literacy standards. Name the title of the last book you read, describe it, and tell us what you learned from it.

2. BPHSF students participate in internships that introduce them to the world of work. Write about your career interests.

3. BPHSF students are unique. How would you describe yourself as a student? For example, how do you learn best, what is your best subject, explain your answer.

4. BPHSF students have a rigorous schedule. They must balance internships, individual learning experiences with their advisors, and college preparation. How will you organize your time to meet these challenges? Give an example of how you have adjusted to a difficult situation in the past.

5. What do you think the BPHSF has to offer you?

PART V – PARENT RESPONSE

Please respond to the following questions in the space provided.

1. Why is the BPHSF a good match for your child?

2. How does your child learn best?

3. Tell us about your child's best talents and abilities.

4. What will you do to contribute to the academic success of your student?

5. Family engagement is integral to the success of your student. Family members can be involved in art, music, drama, technology, team meetings, fund raising, orientation activities, exhibitions, etc. How would you like to be involved?
